1. GLOSSARY OF TERMS

The following terms and definitions shall apply throughout these rules unless otherwise stated:

“Act” means the Gambling Regulation Act (Vic) 2003.

“Authorised Point of Sale” is the location of a licensed Retailer approved by Intralot Australia where entries in TV Bingo may be purchased.

“TV Bingo” means the lottery game which is conducted by Intralot Australia once a week and in accordance with these rules.

“TV Bingo Board” is a 5X5 grid printed on the Entry Ticket which includes the player’s twenty four (24) TV Bingo numbers and the Bonus Star. Each Bingo Board is unique. Each Entry Ticket includes at least three (3) TV Bingo Boards.

“Bonus Star” is a bonus number in the centre of all TV Bingo Boards which is represented by an asterisk * on the Entry Ticket.

“Claim Period” means the period defined by Intralot Australia in which a prize can be claimed. This period ends six (6) months from the date that the Draw was conducted. If the last day, and any day or days immediately preceding it, is a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday, the period ends on the last working day before that day. All such periods end at the close of business on the nominated day.

“Close of Draw Entries” means the time and day determined by Intralot Australia after which entries into a Draw will not be accepted.

“Corners” is a prize category whereby the numbers in the four (4) corners of a TV Bingo Board are matched with numbers from the first twenty five (25) balls drawn.

“Diagonals” is a prize category whereby eight (8) numbers are matched with numbers from the first twenty five (25) balls drawn to form a cross (X) pattern from corner to corner on the TV Bingo Board.

“Draw” means the drawing of numbered TV Bingo balls as described in these rules by which winning entries in TV Bingo are determined.

“Draw Malfunction” is a failure of the drawing machine or any device integral to its operation.

“Entry Cost” is the amount determined by Intralot Australia which is paid by the player for the purchase of a TV Bingo Entry Ticket. This amount excludes any Retailer’s Commission.

“Entry Ticket” is a record of entry in TV Bingo produced at any Authorised Point of Sale which is issued in accordance with these rules.

“Full House” is a prize category whereby all twenty four (24) numbers on the TV Bingo Board are matched with numbers from the fifty (50) balls drawn. At least one (1) of the twenty four (24) numbers should be matched from the last six (6) balls drawn (between the 45th and 50th ball).

“Internet” means the world wide connection of computer networks providing for the transmittal of electronic mail, on-line information, information retrieval and file transfer protocol.

“Intralot Australia” means Intralot Australia Pty Ltd whose registered office is located at 299 Williamstown Road, Port Melbourne, VIC 3207. Being the entity which conducts and promotes public lotteries in accordance with the Act in the State of Victoria and participating jurisdictions.

“Intralot Australia’s Website” means Intralot Australia’s website located at www.intralot.com.au where the rules and other information relating to TV Bingo can be found.

“Membership Card” is a card which enables the holder to register Entry Tickets in TV Bingo in accordance with the terms of that membership and these rules.

“Minimum Guarantee Prize” is the amount defined by Intralot Australia which represents the starting amount for the Snowball prize category.

“Prize Fund” is a minimum of sixty per cent (60%) of the Entry Cost of TV Bingo, that will be paid into a Prize Pool.

“Prize Pool” is the fund from which all TV Bingo prizes will be paid including any Promotional Prizes where applicable.

“Promotional Prizes” are additional prizes allocated to certain winning categories in accordance with these rules.

“PRS Number” is the player registration system number that applies to the registered Membership Card.

“Retailer” is a person or corporation appointed by Intralot Australia to process entries in TV Bingo.

“Retailer’s Commission” means the amount payable to the Retailer based on a percentage of the Entry Cost which makes up a component of the Total Ticket Cost. This amount is approved by the Minister for Gaming in accordance with the licence.

“Retailer Syndicate” is where a Retailer purchases an Entry Ticket in order to create equal shares out of this ticket and provide them to customers for participation in a particular Draw.

“VCGR” means the Victoria Commission for Gambling Regulation established by the Act.

“Winner Declaration Form” is a form supplied by Intralot Australia that is to be completed by all winners of prizes over four thousand Australian dollars ($4,000), upon presentation of their Entry Ticket at Intralot Australia’s registered office.

2. TV BINGO RULES

2.1. The rules of TV Bingo will come into effect on 8 December 2008 and will be used for all Draws conducted after this date. Intralot Australia may amend these rules from time to time in accordance with the Act. If the change invalidates an Entry Ticket that has already been issued, the holder may seek a full refund for the Total Ticket Cost for that Entry Ticket, but Intralot Australia will not be liable for any other loss or damage suffered by the player as a result of such changes.

2.2. The rules will be available at:

- 2.2.1. Intralot Australia's registered office;
- 2.2.2. All Authorised Points of Sale; and
- 2.2.3. Intralot Australia's Website.

2.3. Purchase of an Entry Ticket will bind Intralot Australia and the player contractually in accordance with these rules. The player acknowledges and agrees to be bound by these rules and will accept any decisions made by Intralot Australia in resolving any claim pursuant to these rules.

2.4. Entry into TV Bingo is only open to persons eighteen (18) years of age or over.

2.5. The rules as stated herein will prevail and be used to resolve any differences that may occur from time to time between any instruction on an Entry Tickets, or advertising and promotional material available in the public domain.

3. TV BINGO DESCRIPTION

3.1. TV Bingo Objective

The player's objective when participating in TV Bingo is to match all twenty four (24) numbers on a TV Bingo Board with the numbers from the first forty four (44) balls drawn to win the highest prize category, the Snowball.

4. HOW TO PLAY

4.1. In order to participate in TV Bingo a player should purchase a TV Bingo Entry Ticket, which will be generated from the terminal at any Authorised Point of Sale after a player's request.

4.2. Each Entry Ticket will include a minimum of three (3) TV Bingo Boards.

4.3. The player may participate in TV Bingo by using their Membership Card. Further details relating to the use of Membership Cards are contained in Rule 11.

4.4. The player may also participate in a TV Bingo game via the Internet. Further details relating to the Internet participation are contained in Rule 13.

5. ENTRY TICKET

5.1. Ticket Information

5.1.1. The Entry Ticket will contain the following:

- a) The game logo;
- b) A minimum of three (3) TV Bingo Boards, showing the numbers on 5x5 grids as detailed in 5.1.2;
- c) The player's PRS number (if applicable) or the words NOT PRS REGISTERED;
- d) The Draw number and date to which the entry relates;
- e) The details of the Retailer and relevant terminal from which the Entry Ticket was sold;
- f) The date and time of purchase;
- g) The Entry Cost, the Retailer's Commission and the Total Ticket Cost of the Entry Ticket;
- h) The unique Entry Ticket number; and
- i) The barcode.

5.1.2. A TV Bingo Board is unique in nature and no two (2) TV Bingo Boards will contain all of the same numbers in the same positions. Each TV Bingo Board has the following:

- a) five (5) vertical rows and five (5) horizontal rows forming twenty five (25) numbers;
- b) each vertical row, will have a letter allocated to it to spell the word "BINGO" from left to right;
- c) each vertical row, with the exception of the Bonus Star on the middle row (N), consists of five (5) numbers selected from a range of fifteen (15) numbers;
- d) the numbers selected under row "B" will be from a range of numbers from one (1) to fifteen (15);
- e) the numbers selected under row "I" will be from a range of numbers from sixteen (16) to thirty (30);
- f) the numbers selected under row "N" will be from a range of numbers from thirty one (31) to forty five (45);
- g) the numbers selected under "G" will be from a range of numbers from forty six (46) to sixty (60); and

- h) the numbers selected under “O” will be from a range of numbers from sixty one (61) to seventy five (75).

5.2. Ticket Cancellation

- 5.2.1. Cancellation of Entry Tickets may only take place at the terminal where the Entry Ticket was issued.
- 5.2.2. Entry Tickets may only be cancelled up to twenty four (24) hours after the Entry Ticket has been issued but no less than two (2) hours prior to the scheduled Draw that was active during the time of issuing of the Entry Ticket.
- 5.2.3. The player is entitled to a refund of the Total Ticket Cost if cancellation of the Entry Ticket is within the time parameters detailed in 5.2.2 above.
- 5.2.4. Upon cancellation, the Entry Ticket will be handed back to the player with a printed indication on it showing that the Entry Ticket has been cancelled.

6. COST OF THE ENTRY TICKET

- 6.1. The Total Ticket Cost will be the sum of the Entry Cost and Retailer’s Commission.

7. TV BINGO PRIZES

7.1. Winning Categories

- 7.1.1. Prizes shall be payable in accordance with Table 1 below.

TABLE 1:

Winning Categories	Ball Draw Limit	Payout Pool	Odds
Corners	25	20%	1:96
Diagonals		15%	1:15,599
Snowball	44	58%	1:14,638,344
Full House	50	7%	1:212,085

- 7.1.2. The winning categories described in Table 1 are in order of minimum balls required to successfully achieve these categories. There are three (3) stages to the Draw as described in Rule 8.2.2.
- 7.1.3. Corners: is a prize category whereby the numbers in the four (4) corners of a TV Bingo Board are matched with numbers from the first twenty five (25) balls drawn.

- 7.1.4. *Diagonals: is a prize category whereby eight (8) numbers are matched with numbers from the first twenty five (25) balls drawn to form a cross (X) pattern from corner to corner.
- 7.1.5. *Snowball: is a jackpot prize category whereby all twenty four (24) numbers on the TV Bingo Board are matched with numbers from the first forty four (44) balls drawn.
- 7.1.6. *Full House: is a prize category whereby all twenty four (24) numbers on the TV Bingo Board are matched with numbers from the fifty (50) balls drawn. At least one (1) of the twenty four (24) numbers should be matched from the last six (6) balls drawn.
- 7.1.7. In the event that there are no valid winning entries for these prize categories (Corners, Diagonals, and/or Full House) the prize for these categories will be added to the Snowball category for that Draw creating a jackpot for the Snowball. The jackpot will continue to accumulate until the Draw in which a Snowball winner is found.
- 7.1.8. There will be a Minimum Guarantee Prize (starting amount: minimum $500,000) for the Snowball prize category after the jackpot has been won.
- 7.1.9. A Draw can result in multiple Snowball and Full House winners.
- 7.1.10. If in any Draw there is more than one winner in any winning category, the prize for that winning category will be apportioned amongst the winning entries equally, with rounding up or down to the nearest five (5) cents where necessary.
- 7.1.11. In a particular Draw, the player can only claim one prize that being that of the highest category.

Examples:

- If when the twenty fifth (25) ball is drawn and the player has matched the four (4) numbers in the corners of the TV Bingo Board and has also matched all the numbers needed to form Diagonals in that same TV Bingo Board, then the player will only be eligible for the Diagonals and not for the Corners prize.
- If when the forty fourth (44) ball is drawn and the player has matched all the twenty four (24) numbers of the TV Bingo Board, the player will only be eligible for the Snowball prize.
- If the player matches all the twenty four (24) numbers of the TV Bingo Board including one (1) after the forty fourth (44) ball is drawn then the player will only be eligible for the Full House prize.

7.2. Promotional Prizes

- 7.2.1. Promotional Prizes are in addition to those prizes payable for each winning category as shown in Table 1 above. When in use, these prizes may be apportioned equally between the winning entries and/or categories at Intralot Australia's discretion.
- 7.2.2. Any Promotional Prizes shall be subject to prior notification to the VCGR and as detailed in terms and conditions (regarding eligibility, prize values, determination and payment) published on promotional and point of sale materials advertised throughout the period.

8. TV BINGO DRAWS8.1. Draw Frequency

- 8.1.1. TV Bingo is drawn once a week, and a player can participate by purchasing an Entry Ticket at any Authorised Point of Sale, subject to Rule 8.1.2 and/or from Intralot Australia's Website in accordance with Rule 13.
- 8.1.2. Entry into all TV Bingo Draws closes two (2) hours before the scheduled beginning of the Draw.

8.2. Conduct of the Draw

- 8.2.1. Each Draw will have a corresponding Draw number. The winning balls will be drawn from the drawing machine by Intralot Australia. For each Draw, fifty (50) balls will be randomly drawn from a pool of seventy five (75) balls numbered from one (1) to seventy five (75) inclusive. As each ball is drawn, the system will search for winners automatically. The Draw is completed when exactly fifty (50) balls are drawn following the requirements of these rules. The fifty (50) numbered balls drawn are the valid winning numbers for that specific Draw.
- 8.2.2. The Draw is conducted in three (3) stages.
- a) Stage one (first twenty five (25) balls are drawn)
 - i. The Draw begins by drawing the first twenty five (25) balls. At this stage a player is eligible to win Corners, Diagonals or Snowball prize.
 - ii. When the twenty fifth (25) ball is drawn, the system will automatically calculate how many Diagonals, Corners or Snowball winners have been determined (if any). After the 25th ball is drawn the system will stop searching for Corners and Diagonals winners and the Draw then continues to stage two (2).

- b) Stage two (a further nineteen (19) balls are drawn)
 - i. The Draw continues with a further nineteen (19) balls (26th up to the 44th ball) being drawn in order to allow for players to win the Snowball category.
 - ii. When the 44th ball is drawn, the system will automatically calculate how many Snowball winners have been determined (if any). After the 44th ball is drawn the system will stop searching for Snowball winners and the Draw then continues to stage three (3).
 - c) Stage three (last six (6) balls are drawn)
 - i. The Draw continues with a further six (6) balls drawn, in order to allow for Full House winner(s) until all the fifty (50) balls are drawn.
 - d) The Draw will conclude once the fiftieth (50) ball is drawn. The Draw is then complete until the next scheduled Draw.
- 8.2.3. Each Draw will be conducted under the supervision of a representative, nominated by the VCGR, and will be considered to be complete when the official result sheet is signed by an Intralot Australia Draw official and countersigned by the VCGR representative.
- 8.2.4. In the event of a Draw Malfunction:
- a) All balls drawn before a malfunction are deemed to be valid;
 - b) Any ball(s) drawn during or after a Draw malfunction will be deemed not to be valid;
 - c) If the Draw Malfunction cannot be immediately resolved then the Draw will continue on a backup machine;
 - d) The backup machine will be loaded with the undrawn balls in order to continue the Draw from this point; and
 - e) Should the backup machine experience a Draw Malfunction which cannot be immediately resolved, the Draw will be stopped, taking in to account Rules 8.2.4.(a) and 8.2.4.(b) until such time as agreed to with the VCGR representative the drawing machine is replaced or the malfunction has been resolved.
- 8.2.5. In the case of a Draw Malfunction, the validity or invalidity of any ball drawn is the decision of the VCGR representative. This decision is final and binding on Intralot Australia and the players.

8.3. How many Draws can a player enter

- 8.3.1. Each Entry Ticket is only valid for the Draw as detailed on the Entry Ticket. No future Draw options are available in TV Bingo Draws.

8.4. Draw Results

- 8.4.1. Intralot Australia will publish the results of each Draw as soon as practicable after the completion of the Draw. TV Bingo game results are available at:

- a) Intralot Australia's Website; and
- b) At any Authorised Point of Sale:
 - i. The Draw results are transmitted to all Authorised Points of Sale. The Retailer can scan the player's Entry Ticket through the terminal to confirm the Entry Ticket as a winning Entry Ticket or not. Alternatively the player can request the Draw numbers to be printed off the terminal.
 - ii. Membership Card holders can request the Retailer to swipe the card through the terminal and be informed of any winning entries.

- 8.4.2. In case of a conflict between the published results and the results provided by the terminal as registered in Intralot Australia's central system, the results provided by the terminal will be deemed to be the valid results.

9. CLAIM AND PAYMENT OF PRIZES

9.1. The original printed Entry Ticket is the only valid document for prize payment. The player can only claim prizes upon presentation of the original Entry Ticket that has been issued in a manner authorised by Intralot Australia and in accordance with these rules.

9.2. TV Bingo prizes up to one thousand Australian dollars ($1,000) are payable at all Authorised Points of Sale which are equipped with an on-line terminal.

9.3. All Retailers have the discretion to pay higher level prizes but only up to four thousand Australian dollars ($4,000).

9.4. TV Bingo prizes over four thousand Australian Dollars ($4,000) are payable during office hours at Intralot Australia's registered office upon presentation of identification and the original printed Entry Ticket.

9.5. The player can claim their winning Entry Tickets by forwarding the winning Entry Ticket to Intralot Australia's registered office along with a stamped self-addressed envelope. The delivery of any prize winning Entry Ticket is the responsibility and at the expense of the player. Proof of posting will not be accepted as proof of ownership or delivery of an Entry Ticket. The player will accept all risks, losses, delays, errors or omissions which may occur through Australia Post and Intralot Australia will be under no obligation to send any remittances by registered, recorded or security post. The cost of remittance of prize money may be deducted from the prize payable to the player.

9.6. Payment of prizes by cash will only be paid up to four thousand Australian dollars ($4,000) all amounts greater than four thousand Australian dollars ($4,000) will be paid by cheque.

9.7. Each time a player redeems a prize the player may be given a receipt produced by the terminal as evidence that the prize(s) has been paid.

9.8. Personal data of winning players who have signed an anonymity request will be kept confidential and will not be publicised. An anonymity request can be made by the player marking the relevant section on the back of the Entry Ticket or by filling in a "Winner Declaration Form" at the time the prize is claimed.

9.9. Based on these rules, Intralot Australia has the right under any circumstances to publish the suburb and prize amount.

9.10. Winning Entry Tickets may be claimed at any Authorised Point of Sale or at Intralot Australia's registered office within the Claim Period. After that period, Entry Tickets for unclaimed prizes may be presented:

9.10.1. at Intralot Australia's registered office for forwarding to the relevant State Revenue Office; or

9.10.2. directly to the State Revenue Office, for validation and prize payment by that State Revenue Office.

9.11. Restrictions

9.11.1. An Entry Ticket must meet the following conditions to be valid:

- a) pass all security and verification checks performed by Intralot Australia; and
- b) not be deemed to be in breach of these rules by Intralot Australia.

9.11.2. The player will not be able to claim any prize(s) if:

- a) the player is a minor or a prohibited ticket holder; or

- a) to review Intralot Australia's decision on the claim if the player has received a notice as detailed in 10.2.2; or
- b) to resolve the claim in the event that the player has not received a notice from Intralot Australia.

10.2.4. A request to the VCGR under Rule 10.2.3:

- a) must be in the form approved by the VCGR; and
- b) if the player received a notice under 10.2.2 must be made within ten (10) days of the player receiving the notice.

10.2.5. If a request is made to the VCGR, the VCGR may carry out any investigations the VCGR considers necessary to resolve the matter in dispute.

10.3. Intralot Australia will not consider a claim for prizes which has been remitted as unclaimed prizes to the State Revenue Office in accordance with the Act.

11. MEMBERSHIP CARDS

11.1. A player may apply for a Membership Card at any Authorised Point of Sale.

11.2. Unclaimed winnings for Membership Card holders will be handled in accordance with the Terms and Conditions as detailed in the Membership Card registration form.

11.3. Membership Card holders may check any unclaimed prizes at any Authorised Point of Sale by providing their Membership Card. The Retailer swipes the Membership Card through the terminal which will detail the amount of prizes that have not been claimed for that card holder.

11.4. Proof of ownership of the Membership Card and/or identification may be required from any person presenting an original Entry Ticket which is registered to a Membership Card holder prior to any payment of a prizes being processed. Payment of a prize will be made upon presentation of the original Entry Ticket.

12. RETAILER SYNDICATES

12.1. An individual Retailer may organise a syndicate by acting as a representative of their Authorised Point of Sale and will be liable for all shares provided to their customers. In this situation the Retailer will be deemed to be the player for the purposes of the Act and these rules. Under no circumstances, will a Retailer organising a syndicate act as a representative of Intralot Australia for the purposes of providing a syndicate.

12.2. In the event of a Retailer organising a syndicate, Intralot Australia will not be liable for any payment or cancellation in any form which relates to the allocation of shares or issuing of receipts to customers. The original printed Entry Ticket is the only valid document for prize payment which in the case of a Retailer Syndicate will be payable to the Retailer as the bearer of the Entry Ticket.

12.3. Intralot Australia bears no responsibility for any agreement or condition of sale between the Retailer and the customer participating in the Retailer Syndicate.

12.4. Intralot Australia will bear no responsibility for any Retailer Syndicate other than a syndicate organised by Intralot Australia through its system and/or retail network on a whole.

13. INTERNET ENTRY

13.1. To participate in TV Bingo over the Internet the player will be required to register on Intralot Australia's Website (www.inralot.com.au). A player who has not registered to play TV Bingo will not be permitted to participate.

13.2. In order for the player to register on Intralot Australia's Website the player must be eighteen (18) years of age or older, be a resident of Victoria or a participating jurisdiction and provide all relevant information requested during the registration process.

13.3. Following the registration process, a temporary password and a Membership ID will be provided. The player can then log in using the temporary password and select a password of their choice. The player may need to provide further verification of identity if requested by Intralot Australia.

13.4. Before any entry is finalised the player will need to confirm that the request for an entry into TV Bingo complies with the rules and entry options as explained on the Intralot Australia's Website.

13.5. The player should check that all the relevant information on the entry is correct and in line with the player's request before finalising the transaction. Intralot Australia bears no responsibility for any errors in selection by the player for online purchases.

13.6. Once the player finalises an entry on Intralot Australia’s Website and the entry has been successfully confirmed, the system will provide the player with a ticket number. The player can check the account on Intralot Australia’s Website and confirm that the entry has been successfully submitted.

13.7. If the player wishes to have a printed record of the entry, the player can print a copy of the entry from Intralot Australia’s Website.

13.7.1. The printed record will contain the following:

- a) The game logo;
- b) A minimum of three (3) TV Bingo Boards, showing the numbers on 5x5 grids as detailed in Rule 5.1.2;
- c) The Draw number and date to which the entry relates;
- d) The Entry Cost, the Commission and the Total Ticket Cost of the entry;
- e) The unique ticket number; and
- f) A confirmation message of the player’s entry - “Your entry has been successfully submitted”.

13.8. This copy can be used as an indication that the entry was submitted but not as an Entry Ticket to claim prizes.

13.9. The player can participate in a particular Draw not less than two (2) hours before the beginning of the Draw.

13.10. Cancellation of the entry can be performed by the player within twenty four (24) hours from the time the entry was submitted and confirmed and up to two (2) hours before the beginning of the Draw that was active during the submission of the entry.

13.11. In order for a player to purchase TV Bingo tickets on Intralot Australia’s Website the player must first deposit funds into their electronic wallet and have them confirmed as available funds by the relevant external payment provider.

13.12. In order for the player to request for funds to be transferred out from their electronic wallet the player should first get confirmation from Intralot Australia’s Help Desk by confirming their identity, age and place of residence details that were provided during the registration process. Once confirmed, the player’s request will be processed, and the player will be able to withdraw funds as often as required.

13.13. If any of the information provided to Intralot Australia in relation to a player's account is changed, then the player should contact Intralot Australia and provide details of the changed information. It is the player's responsibility to make sure that all information provided to Intralot Australia is correct.

13.14. Intralot Australia will not take any responsibility for any technical problems that result from a lack of accessibility to Intralot Australia's Website or for any errors that may be made during the registration or entry process. Intralot Australia is not liable for any malfunction or technical failures that are generated from the external payment provider's system.

13.15. Winnings up to a limit determined by Intralot Australia will be automatically deposited into the player's electronic wallet. Winnings above this limit will be subject to an authorisation process. Upon successful identification of the player by Intralot Australia the winnings may be deposited into that player's electronic wallet.

13.16. A winning entry purchased through the internet cannot be claimed through an Authorised Point of Sale or Intralot Australia's registered office.

13.17. Players can at any time self-exclude themselves from Intralot Australia's Website participation by following the process for self-exclusion detailed on Intralot Australia's Website.

13.18. Intralot Australia reserves the right to change the information provided on Intralot Australia's Website without notifying players in advance, as long as these changes are not in contradiction with the Act.

13.19. If the player has requested anonymity on Intralot Australia's Website then Intralot Australia has no right whatsoever to publish the player's name. An anonymity request does not prevent Intralot Australia from publishing any information about the amount of the prize won and the player's suburb of residence.

13.20. Internet players who have participated in TV Bingo through an Authorised Point of Sale by using their Membership Card may claim their winnings either at any Authorised Point of Sale or on Intralot Australia's Website.

14. COMPLAINTS

The player may make a complaint to Intralot Australia and the VCGR in accordance with section 5.5.10(5) of the Act.
